

REBER

NEW COUNSEL ANGIE ROMERO

We are pleased to announce that Angie Romero, attorney at law and graduate in Business Administration, has joined REBER Rechtsanwälte as Counsel in mid-June 2020.

Angie Romero has longstanding and proven experience in contract, employment and tenancy law, in family and criminal law as well as in complex civil law litigation. She worked at the District Court of Zurich for more than eleven years and held several positions including law clerk and chairperson of the arbitration authority for landlord and tenant issues. The last five years she was a member of the court management board of the District Court of Zurich and acted inter alia as head of human resources with responsibility for 120 court administration employees. She therefore also has vast experience in management and in public employment law. Angie Romero continues to work at various District Courts as a substitute judge. She advises and represents private individuals and enterprises.

Angie Romero studied law at the University of Zurich and was admitted to the Zurich Bar in 2011. She also studied Business Administration at the University of Applied Sciences Zurich. Since 2019 she is a member of Parliament of the Canton of Zurich.

Angie Romero is fluent in written and spoken German and Spanish and has a good knowledge of Italian, English and French.